

The Battle of the Big Dogs

Presented and refereed by Toast of Jax Toastmasters

Who: It was bound to happen someday. All the stars aligned and it turned out that a full slate of Big Dogs will be pitted against each other for what promises to be the speech and evaluation competition of a lifetime.

Speakers: Jackie Pease – ATM and recent winner of the International Speech Contest, Dale Howard – DTM and seasoned professional, Milo Holt – ATM and founding member of Toast of Jax Toastmasters, Betty Gambill – CTM and brilliant rising star.

Evaluators: David Rafanowicz – CTM and winner of four Division level contests, Richard Welty – ATMB and recognized authority, Ulrich Leinhase – ATMB and contest champion, Jim Domenico – ATM and Prince of Evaluations.

What: A regular Toastmasters meeting that promises to be anything but regular. Some of the finest Speakers will take each other on, followed by a seasoned group of Evaluators. The sparks will fly and the words will flow.

When: Saturday, May 3, 2003 – the show begins at 7:30 a.m. – please arrive early as front row seats will be filled on a first-come, first-served basis!

Where: The Ramada Inn – I-295 and San Jose Boulevard, Jacksonville, Florida 32223, the ring in back of the hotel restaurant. See www.toastofjax.org

How: In what will appear to be a regular Toast of Jax Toastmaster meeting, four contestants in the speech segment and another four in the evaluation section will square off. They will all be well prepared to use the finest techniques of the trade.

Why: To produce a show to entertain and educate – and, if the truth be known to settle, once and for all, who is the heavyweight champion of the world in their respective categories.
